Substitution of the word “Pension” for the words “Family Pension”.

4. In the principal Act, for the words “Family Pension”, wherever they occur, the word “pension” shall be substituted.

Substitution of a new section for section 6A and 6B.

5. For sections 6A and 6B of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Employees Pension Scheme.

“6A. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, frame a scheme to be called the Employees’ Pension Scheme for the purpose of providing for—

(a) superannuation pension, retiring pension or permanent total disablement pension to the employees of any establishment or class of establishments to which this Act applies; and

(b) widow or widower’s pension, children pension or orphan pension payable to the beneficiaries of such employees.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 6, there shall be established, as soon as may be after training of the Pension Scheme, a Pension Fund into which there shall be paid, from time to time, in respect of every employee who is a member of the Pension Scheme,—

(a) such sums from the employer’s contribution under section 6, not exceeding eight and one-third per cent., of the basic wages, dearness allowance and retaining allowance, if any, of the concerned employees, as may be specified in the Pension Scheme;

(b) such sums as are payable by the employers of exempted establishments under sub-section (6) of section 17;

(c) the net assets of the Employees’ Family Pension as on the date of the establishment of the Pension Fund.

(3) On the establishment of the Pension Fund the Family Pension Scheme (hereinafter referred to as the ceased scheme) shall cease to operate and all assets of the ceased scheme shall vest in and transferred to, and all liabilities under the ceased scheme shall be enforceable against, the Pension Fund and the beneficiaries under the ceased scheme shall be entitled to draw the benefits, not less than the benefits they were entitled to under the ceased scheme, from the Pension Fund.

(4) The Pension Fund shall vest in and be administered by the Central Board in such manner as may be specified in the Pension Scheme.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Pension Scheme may provide for all or any of the matters specified in Schedule III.

(6) The Pension Scheme may provide that all or any of its provisions shall take effect either prospectively or retrospectively on such date as may be specified in that behalf in that scheme.

(7) A Pension Fund Scheme, framed under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the scheme or both Houses agree that the scheme should not be made, the scheme shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that scheme.”.

6. In section 6C of the principal Act,—

(a) sub-section (3) shall be omitted;

14. Any other matter which is to be provided for in the Pension Scheme or which may be necessary or proper for the purpose of implementation of the Pension Scheme.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 (Act 19 of 1952) provides for institution of compulsory Provident Fund, Family Pension Fund and Deposit-Linked Insurance Fund for the benefit of the employees in factories and other establishments employing twenty or more persons. The Act presently applied to 174 categories of industries and classes of establishments. As on 31st March, 1992, about 2.12 lakh establishments with about 16.6 million subscribers were covered under the Act.

2. In August, 1990, the Central Board of Trustees of Employees' Provident Fund had set up a Tripartite Committee to draw up a suitable Pension Scheme for the subscribers under the Act. The Committee submitted their Report in December, 1990. The Central Board of Trustees, approved a Pension Scheme, as contained in the above Report, and recommended it to the Central Government for acceptance.

3. The Central Government have accepted the recommendations of the Committee and propose to introduce a comprehensive pension scheme of Social Security. It is proposed to amend the Act for the purpose to empower the Central Government to frame an Employees' Pension Scheme retrospectively or prospectively providing, inter alia, for the following:—

(i) superannuation pension, retiring pension, permanent total disablement pension, widow or widower's pension, children pension or orphan pension;

(ii) creation of a Pension Fund without any extra contribution from either employers or employees, but by diverting 8.33 per cent. of the existing contribution from the employers' share of provident fund to the Pension Fund from the date the Pension Scheme comes into force;

(iii) transfer of all assets and liabilities of the existing Family Pension Fund in the proposed Pension Fund.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The new section 6A of the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 proposed to be inserted vide clause 5 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to frame the Employees' Pension Scheme for the purpose of providing superannuation pension, retiring pension, permanent total disablement pension to the employees and also widow or widower's pension, children pension or orphan pension payable to the beneficiaries of such employees covered under the Act. Under the Employees' Pension Scheme which will be framed by the Central Government, the various matters which are to be provided therein are enumerated in the new Schedule III proposed to be inserted vide clause 8 of the Bill.

2. Clause 7 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to exempt any establishment or class of establishments having any other income-tax approved scheme, subject to the conditions as may be specified in the notification.

3. The provisions to be made in the Employees' Pension Scheme under the Act will contain matters of detail and day-to-day working e.g. the employees or class of employees to whom the Scheme shall apply, the portion of employers' contribution to be credited to the pension fund, the scales of superannuation pension, retiring pension, permanent total disablement pension, children pension and orphan pension to be paid to the employees and their beneficiaries and the mode of disbursement thereof and other like matters.

4. The delegation of legislative power is, thus, of a normal character.
